Gaming the GameStop stock, taking Hedge Funds for a ride!

How often do we read about middle income individuals appropriating the wealth from the super-rich using the very systems that they have created in order to become and stay wealthy? Not very. So when it did happen last week at the New York Stock Exchange, everyone sat up and took notice. Not least of all the wealthy who, some would say, are whining that this form of "free market" is against the wealthy! Read more...

You made me a Khalistani

The happenings on 26th January and the callous attitude with which the Govt is treating the farmers for more than two months makes me feel the Govt is going to make Khalistanis, Tamil chauvinists etc and demand for statehoods are likely to raise again. The discipline of the protesters rattled the people in power. The Home Minister, drawing from his experiences in Gujarat, probably anticipated people to turn violent. That didn't happen. So they used the police. Read more...

Is Development Finance Institution the way forward?

The discussions on the formation of a new Development Finance Institution (DFI) also continues, to meet the needs of the infrastructure sector. However, it is noted the lack of a sustainable source of funds, can prove to be a serious constraint to the proposed DFIs. Subsidised credit from the government and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has not proved to be a sustainable source in the past. Read more...

A Push on Large RE Projects to Achieve Paris Pledge

After making a pledge in the Paris Agreement to increase the share of renewable energy, India is not only pushing large scale renewable energy projects including solar and wind projects, but it has also eased many rules and regulations to bring back large hydropower projects. India has already given the status of renewable energy to large scale hydro projects. Read more...

Bank Charges Must Go Now!

Bank charges come in multiple forms: non-maintenance of minimum balance, cash withdrawals and deposits at bank branches and ATMs, cash deposit at Cash Deposit Machines, balance inquiry and mini-statements from ATMs, annual charge on debit cards, regeneration of ATM PIN from bank branches, SMS alerts, change of address or mobile number, changes in KYC related documents etc. All of these directly hurt the poor most.
