Taking away Govt business from Govt Banks: A deep conspiracy to kill them.

The Finance Minister has announced that Govt business handled by the Govt Banks i.e. Public Sector Banks will also be provided to Private Sector. Already certain Govt businesses have been slowly handed over to the new generation Private Banks. State Bank of India was handling 99% of the Govt business at one point in time. Now it has come down to 58%,

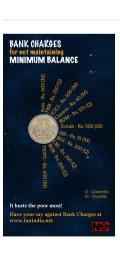

The Govt's attempt may appear trivial to many, but the deep-rooted conspiracy is to kill the public sector Banks by depriving them of not only Govt business but Govt Deposits, Govt Accounts, Salary Accounts of Govt and Public Sector employees and make it difficult for them to compete.
